

The Society for Case Research Summer Workshop
Co-Sponsored with the Global Jesuit Case Series
Call for Papers Summer 2017

Rockhurst University

Thursday July 20, 2017 - Saturday July 22, 2017

The Society for Case Research (SCR) facilitates the exchange of ideas leading to the improvement of case research, writing, and teaching; assists in the publication of written cases or case research and other scholarly work; and provides recognition for excellence in case research, writing, and teaching.

I am excited to announce that this summer, SCR will host a joint workshop with the Global Jesuit Case Series (GJCS) that will include faculty from Jesuit colleges and universities around the world. An outcome of this collaboration will be a special edition of the Journal of Case Studies, published in 2018 which emphasizes Jesuit values. These values include making explicit the link between principled decision-making and discipline-specific issues faced by industry. Submitted cases must embody the values of social justice, human dignity, moral leadership, ethics, corporate social responsibility or sustainability. This holistic approach to the case study method contributes to the forming of reflective, value-centered leaders whose actions are driven by a concern for their organization, society and the world.

Of course, there will be the continued publication of the journals for the Society for Case Research and the collaboration with the GJCS will result in additional publishing avenues offered to conference attendees including:

- Business Case Journal
- Journal of Case Studies
- Special Edition Journal of Case Studies/ Global Jesuit Case Series

- Global Jesuit Case Series
- Journal of Critical Incidents

The workshop begins at 8 a.m. on Thursday, July 20, 2017 with a Case Writer’s Boot Camp. The charge of the Boot Camp will be an additional $50. During this boot camp, those who are new to case writing will learn about writing good cases and what can be done to make your ideas a reality. The Boot Camp is an excellent opportunity for anyone wishing to develop their case writing skills

For those members who are not attending the Boot Camp, the workshop begins with registration from 3:00 – 5:00 at Conway Hall and dinner and social hour at 5:30. Additional details will be furnished at a later time.

Important dates:

Case submission deadline	June 2, 2017
Acceptance/Rejection notification	June 9, 2017
Early registration deadline	June 16, 2017
Final registration deadline	June 23, 2017

Send your submissions to: Michael.stellern@rockhurst.edu

Please send all your submissions to Michael Stellern at Rockhurst University, but check on your registration whether you want your submission to be considered for the special edition of the Jesuit journal. The special edition journal will follow all SCR guidelines and will be a co-produced version of the Journal of Case Studies. The Journal of Case Studies and the special edition Jesuit journal will have similar acceptance rates. Additionally, the best article submitted for the Jesuit Journal will be printed in the Business Case Journal.
