

Student Travel Award
Criteria

1. The Society for Case Research is happy to announce that it has established a Student Travel Award to assist deserving students with the costs of attending the SCR Annual Meeting that is held at the MBAA International Conference in Chicago, IL or the Society for Case Research Summer Workshop.
2. The award is intend to assist in covering expenses for registration, lodging, and/or travels for the student. The award is on a reimbursable basis (i.e., student must submit receipts in order to receive funding from SCR).
3. The maximum award given at either meeting will be $500.00. This award may be divided among multiple recipients, based on applications received.
4. Applications must be submitted to the Vice President-Programs (for the Annual Meeting) or the Vice President-Workshop (for the Summer Workshop). The contact information for the Vice President can be obtained from the SFCR Website (<http://www.socr.org>). The application must be received at least 30 days prior to the start of the meeting/workshop.
5. Applicants please note the following:
 - a. Applicants must submit a Critical Incident and Teaching Note in the SCR track at the MBAA International Conference or a Case and Teaching Note at the Summer Workshop to be eligible for the award.
 - b. Applicants must be an author or co-author on the submission. Applicants submitting an embryo case are not eligible for the award.
 - c. Applicants must attend the MBAA International Conference or Summer Workshop and take part in the actual presentation of the Critical Incident/Case.
 - d. Graduate and Undergraduate Students are eligible to receive the award.
 - e. The following items must be submitted:
 - i. Application for Student Travel Award.
 - ii. Letter of Recommendation from the professor who worked with the student on the submission. Recommendation must address student's contribution to the critical incident/case.
 - iii. List of other funding received (expected to be received) to cover expenses incurred.
6. Please note that incomplete submissions (missing information and/or documents) may not be considered.
